Did You Know Your Debit Card Can...?

If you do not typically use a debit card, you might be surprised to find out every On My Own account holder gets an InTouch debit card with their account. And, if you are a frequent user of your debit card, you're probably well aware of how flexible your card can be, whether funding those late-night study sessions at the coffee shop or helping fit the bill for an emergency situation. But no matter what camp you fall into, there are still a few surprises you may not know your ITCU debit card has in store. For example, your debit card can...

- ...earn cash back at places you like to go. Through the Ampre<sup>1</sup> service, debit card users can browse deals at thousands of national retailers, take advantage of limited-time offers and earn cash back simply by using their ITCU debit card!
- ...be used safely and securely for online purchases through Mastercard Masterpass<sup>TM2</sup>. For brick and mortar merchants who offer "tap and pay" service, you can Masterpass, you can open the app, simply tap the Masterpass logo on the card terminal with your phone and check out with ease once you have registered your ITCU debit card with Masterpass.
- ...sync up with the free MobiMoney<sup>TM3</sup> app to give you the ability to manage your card on-the-go. Need to organize your recent transaction receipts? Trying to keep your spending habits under control with alerts or temporarily suspend use because you've misplaced the card? These options, and more, are offered through the app!

If you have not explored the possibilities your debit card provides, now is the perfect time to get started. Learn more at <https://www.itcu.org/debit> and get started today!
